Benjamin Finger | "9,5 EP" | Sellout Music | 2016

Benjamín Finger es un compositor y director de cine de ficción de Noruega, quien ha publicado varios cortometrajes, videos musicales y ha participado en varias exposiciones fotográficas, además trabaja para la televisión NRK.

Posiblemente influenciado por su actividad como DJ, "9,5 EP" tiene un marcado ritmo bailable, en la vertiente techno house. Así es como queda demostrado con "PÉRp mjËuĐzk‏" que da comienzo a este EP de tres temas con un coro de voces femeninas etéreas. "Party Corpse (extended version)" continua con el beat 4x4 y teclados ambientales.

Por último "Orange Monday" es una pieza suave con delicados beats que bien pueden constituir el marco para una cálida tarde de verano.

Benjamin Finger is a composer and fiction filmmaker from Norway who has done several short films, music videos and has participated in several photo exhibitions, and works for television NRK.

Likely influenced by his activity as a DJ, "9.5 EP" has a strong danceable rhythm in techno house vein. This is as demonstrated with "PRp mjuĐzjk" which starts this EP of three songs with ethereal female vocals. "Corpse Party (extended version)" continues the 4x4 beat and ambient keyboards.

Finally "Orange Monday" is a soft piece with delicate beats that may well be the framework for a warm summer evening.
