Hanetration | “Gavia” | s/r | 2017

Desde "Coiled Fire EP" [2016] que no escuchábamos a Hanetration, artista de Cornwall, Reino Unido.

Esta vez con "Gavia EP", su noveno lanzamiento desde 2012, nuestro protagonista nos propone ambientes algo menos abstractos y también ritmos menos nerviosos. Aunque por cierto que experimentamos beats palpitantes que inducen al trance. Un devenir hipnótico que invita al movimiento de cabeza de lado a lado junto a un vaivén del que resulta fácil dejarse llevar.

"Kufuor" es un cruce de sonidos sintéticos carentes de ritmo que se desarrolla rápidamente hasta alcanzar un climax. Quizás el tema más torcido del EP.

Con "Gavia EP" Hanetration ha tomado una dirección cercana a la experimentación pero con un énfasis en las líneas más melódicas. Quedo expectante para saber cuál será el siguiente paso de este artista.

Since "Coiled Fire EP"
[2016] we did not have news of Hanetration, artist from Cornwall, United Kingdom.

This time with "Gavia EP", his ninth release since 2012, our protagonist proposes less abstract environments and also less unsteady and mechanical rhythms. Anyway we experience throbbing beats that induce to trance although in several tracks.

An hypnotic becoming invites us to move our heads from one side to the other along with a swing which is easy to get carried away.

"Kufuor" is a crossroads of synthetic sounds and beatless which develops quickly until reaches a sort of climax.
Perhaps the most twisted track of the EP.

With "Gavia EP" Hantetration has taken a close direction to experimentation but with an emphasis on the most melodic lines. I look forward to knowing the next step of this artist.
